AGAINST CAST GUNS.

An Unfavorable Report Upon the Thurlow Experiment at Last.

THE PIECE STOOD ALL TESTS,

But the Naval Officers Are Prejudiced in the Matter.

A MIXTURE OF POETRY AND POLITICS

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT, ] WASHINGTON, April 15 .- At last the authorities of the Navy Department seem shout to arrive at some conclusion in regard to the open hearth steel cast gun made at the Thurlow works in Chester county, Pa., and whose test at Annapolis followed the disastrous trial of the Hainesworth (of Pittsburg) Bessemer steel cast gun. It will be remembered that the Thurlow gun stood the statutory test of 10 rounds without bursting, but that it showed an expansion, a very ll fraction greater than the expansion of a "built-up" gun after a similar test. THE POINT AT ISSUE.

The question then arose whether the gun was a serviceable one within the meaning of the law, and the decision of this question of the isw, and the decision of this question hung fire during the latter part of the Whitney administration of naval affairs, and up to this time under the Tracy administration. A day or two ago the officials at the Annapolis Proving Ground were instructed by telegraph to give the gun a further test of ten rounds. This was done, and the cast gun again refused to burst, but it showed an expansion nearly double the former expansion, and several new and serious flaws developed. and serious flaws developed.

The Chief of the Bureau of Ordnance there upon decided to report unfavorably to the acceptance of the gun, and this report was sent to the Secretary of the Navy to-day. If sent to the Secretary of the Navyto-day. If the Secretary approves the report it will then be urged by the Thurlow people that a decision must, under the law, have been made after the statutory test of ten rounds, and not after 20 rounds, and that if the department could not truthfully say after the statutory test that the gun was not serviceable then the makers should have the $5,000 and upward provided by act of Congress. AN INTERESTING QUESTION.

The interesting question to naval authorities is, how much more will the gun stand? And there is a general desire to have it proven to the point of bursting. The endurance of the the point of bursting. The endurance of the casting has been a surprise in naval circles, and, though this gun failed, confidence in the possibility of making a successful cast gun has been vastly strengthened.

The Thurlow people themselves say that this gun was tempered too soft, and that they have no doubt that cast guns could be made a success with a little experimenting, properly encouraged by Congress. They think, however, that they should have been paid for the gun under discussion, but there is little doubt now that Secretary Tracy will approve the report of the Chief of Ordnance.

POETICAL DEMOCRATS

Use Rhymes as an Argument in the Montana Senatorial Contest-A Local Election Furnishes an Occasion for Partisan Jollification.

WASHINGTON, April 15 .- When the Montana contest was called up in the Senate to-day Mr. Morgan took the floor. He reterred to the recent Democratic successes in Helena and Butte as a response to the fraud attempted in seating Republican claimants as Senators and as a proof that the great heart of the people was true to honesty and manhood and fair dealing. If those elections, he said, had gone the other way there would have been no trouble in referway there would have been no trouble in refer-ring the case back to the people. Now he sup-posed that was impossible. He declared that an impression from the action of the committee had already been produced in Montana, as was proved by a telegram received from that State at 2 o'clock this morning. He proceeded to read, amid laughter on the Democratic side, as follows:

Hurrah for bonest citizens, who vindicate the right: Hurral for law and liberty—the people won the fight. Bepublican corruptionists went weeping to their For the voters placed the ban upon the men who stole the State.

The mourners speak in whispers; there's crape stole the State.

The mourners speak in whispers; there's crape upon the door,

The G. O. P. was killed by stealing precinct thirty-four.

Mr. Hoar said that as he understood the facts the Democratic majority in Butte, which a year ago was 800, had been reduced to about 250, and that at precinct 34 there was not a single voter left. All of those apparent voters had gone like last year's snow bank. He left his friend from North Carolina to his comic almanac.

Mr. Vance—The Senator from Massachusetts Mr. Vance—The Senator from Massachusetts derives as much comfort out of small material as any Senator on this floor. My information is entirely different. The City of Butte gave a Republican majority last year, and there has been a great "turn-over" in consequence of "subsequent proceedings."

Congress Only Can Set Aside the Verdict of a

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.1 WASHINGTON, April 15.-A letter was pre sented to the Secretary of War to-day from the former Colonel of a regiment of Illinois volun-teers, asking that the verdict of a court martial be set aside, which dismissed from the service one of his men in 1864. The private asked to be detailed to do recruiting service at home and when the Colonel refused, used insulting and when the Colonel refused, used insulting language. For this he was tried by a court martial and dismissed. The private died several years ago, and since then his widow has been maintained by Free Masons, of which order her husband was a member. These friends discovered only a short time ago that the husband had been dismissed by verdict of a court martial. Desiring to get a pension for the widow they set about to get the verdict in the case of the husband set aside. The Division of War Records in the War Department is loaded down with similar requests, and even old and life-long officers in the regular service do not seem to know that the verdict of a court martial cannot be annulled except by act of Congress.

It is only a short time since no less a military personage than General Schofield requested than Pendent to the Provident to the Provident of the Provident to the Provident of the Provident to the Pr

It is only a short time since no less a military personage than General Schofield requested the President to relieve someone of a disability due to the verdict of a court martial, and was surprised to find the President utterly power-less under the law. In the Illinois case referred to the colonel of the regiment writes urgently regretting the effect of the verdict, and excusing the man for his language. The only avenue of relief for the widow is to secure the removal of the stigma by act of Congress, though she may apply for a persion in Congress regardless of the dismissal of her husband, and the question of his status may not be raised against her when the circumstances are known.

THE SILVER PROBLEM.

Republicans Think That They Are Now Approaching Its Solution.

WASHINGTON, April 15.-The Senate and House Republican committees on the silver question were in joint session two hours this morning. Very radical differences in the views of the Senators and Representatives were disclosed by the discussion, but an earnest pur-pose was shown to harmonize the differences if possible. One of the chief points upon which the committees could not agree was the pro-posed increase of national bank circulation. Such a proposition, it was said, could not secure a majority vote in the House. It was finally decided to commit the subject to a sub-com-mittee of five Senators and five Representa-mittee of five Senators and five Representatives.

The two sub-committees, consisting of Senators Aldrich, Allison, Jones, Sherman and Teller, and Representatives Bayre, Bartine, Conger, KcKinley and McKenna, were in session three hours this afternoon and practically reached an agreement, though no formal action was taken. The measure which found acceptance deals with silver only. The two principal provisions are, first, that the Secretary of the Treasury shall be directed to purchase monthly 4,500,000 onnees of silver; and, second, that the notes issued in payment therefore shall be redeemable in lawful money.

BATTLE SHIPS TO BE BUILT.

The Action of the Committee of the Whole Changed by the House. WASHINGTON, April 15 .- In the House today, after the reading of the journal, Mr. Boutelle, of Maine, called up the naval appropria-tion bill, the pending question being upon the amendment adopted in committee of the whole striking out the clause providing for the construction of three coast line battle ships. The action of the committee was rejected— yeas, 104; nays, 182. The naval appropriation bill was then passed.

THE PINAL SESSION TO-DAY.

Labors of the Pau-American Congress Drawing to no End. WASHINGTON, April 15.-The Pan-Ameri cans to-day adopted the report of the Commit-tee on Arbitration. Chili did not vote and Mexico voted in the affirmative, with a reserva tion as to certain articles of the proposed basis of the treaties. The objectionable articles were not specified. The report of the Committee on Extradition was also adopted. The conference adjourned until to-morrow afternoon, when it is expected the final session will be Agent O'Brien Finds His Task Laborious and Tedious. The meeting of the directors of the Human Society yesterday afternoon was largely at-tended. The main topic before the Board was the collecting of the names of principals and witnesses in cases of cruelty alleged against attendants at Dixmont Hospital. Mr. James B. Scott, who was present, said that an investiga-Scott, who was present, said that an investiga-tion by the society's agent was, of course, out of the question, but it is always a good plan to keep a watchful eye upon public institutions, and he thought that General Agent O'Brien should be commended for the spirit that had prompted him to offer to collect evidence, if it were possible to do so. Agent O'Brien said that the task of gathering names is a slow and alborious one, and asked that he be allowed further time before presenting to the directors his work. His request was granted by the board.

AN EYE TO THE MAIN CHANCE. What a Doctor Thought Was His First

Duty to a Patient. The suit of David Humphreys against the National Benefit Association of Indianapolis, to recover on an insurance policy for the loss of an eye, is on trial before Judge White. When Humphreys was placed on the stand he was asked what he did when he got his eye hurt. He replied that he went to a doctor. "What did he say?" asked the attorney. "How much money have you?" replied Humphreys.

"I mean what did he tell you about your eye?" continued the counsel.
"He wouldn't tell me anything until he found out how much money I had," said the witness.
When the Court got over its laugh the facts were finally gotten down to.

In the Spring

Nearly everybody needs a good medicine. The mpurities which have accumulated in the blood during the cold months, must be expelled or when the mild days come, and the effect of bracing air is lost, the body is liable to be overcome by debility or some serious disease. The remarkable success achieved by Hood's Sar-saparilla, and the many words of praise it has received, make it worthy of your confidence. We ask you to give this medicine a trial. We are sure it will do you good.
"Every spring for years I have made it a practice to take from three to five bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, because I know it purifies the blood and thoroughly cleanses the system of all impurities." W. H. LAWRENCE, Editor Agri-
